

Adult Program Trip

Cary, NC - Chinese Lantern Festival

Tuesday, November 27, 2018

Do you enjoy learning about other cultures and viewing festive light shows? Then you will want to join us for the Chinese Lantern Festival. We will be leaving from Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 5:00pm.

Travel with us to Cary, NC where the Booth Amphitheatre will be transformed into a magnificent setting when the North Carolina Chinese Lantern Festival returns for the fourth year this holiday season! These larger than life lanterns promise to wow visitors with their amazing craftsmanship, cultural significance and artistic beauty. The ancient art of Chinese lantern making began in the Han Dynasty (206 BC to 220 AD). Each lantern is created by hand on silk fabric stretched over steel frames and is lit with hundreds of LEDs. Take a gentle stroll at your own pace through the amazing displays along a paved path approximately 1/2 mile long. In addition to the lanterns there will be a unique showcase of Chinese culture, featuring martial arts, traditional dance, acrobatics, calligraphy and drum performances.

There will be drinks, light food and holiday snacks available at the concession stands. Please note that no outside food is allowed in the event. You are allowed to bring in 1-FACTORY SEALED bottle of water. Our group will have a reserved seating area with heaters for you to sit and relax throughout the night. This event is rain or shine, we suggest you dress for the weather. The group will arrive back at the Anne Gordon Center in Raleigh at approximately 9:15pm. There will be an earlier shuttle returning back at the Anne Gordon Center at 7:45pm for those choosing to return early.
